LES ARMAGNACS DE MARQUISE DE LIVRY

Maison Fondée in 1832 – Mauléon D’Armagnac

Armagnac is the oldest spirit in France and was first produced in the 14th century in the Dukedom of Gascony south east of Bordeaux. Armagnac is a unique style of brandy and is made in the south of Charentes, in the foothills of the Pyrenees. Unlike Cognac, it is distilled only once through a continuous still to give a heavier, more aromatic and fruity spirit that is very concentrated.

Marquise de Livry is famous for its ancient cellars and extensive range of rare old Vintages. We are proud to offer this exclusive comprehensive treasure chest to our discerning clients.
